CASE NO.: 2:09-cv-2091-JCM-PAL

OPPOSITION TO PLAINTIFFS' MOTION TO STRIKE DEFENDANT THE HERTZ
CORPORATION'S JOINDER TO DEFENDANT FORD MOTOR COMPANY'S DISCLOSURE OF EXPERT WITNESSES

Defendant, THE HERTZ CORPORATION, by and through its attorney of record, Phillip R. Emerson, Esq. of the Law Offices of Emerson and Manke, PLLC and hereby submits the following
 Opposition to Plaintiffs' Motion to Strike Defendant The Hertz

1 Corporation's Joinder to Defendant Ford Motor Company's
2 Disclosure of Expert Witness. This Motion is based upon the 3 following memorandum of points and authorities, any papers and 4 pleadings on file herein, plus any oral argument of counsel
5 entertained by the Court at the hearing of this matter.

7 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

8 A. Plaintiff's Motion is premature.

9 Plaintiffs' Motion seeks to strike only THE HERTZ
10 CORPORATION'S Joinder to Defendant FORD MOTOR COMPANY'S
11 Disclosure of Expert Witnesses. It does not seek to strike the 12 witnesses themselves, or FORD'S disclosure and designation.
13 Thus, if this matter were to proceed to trial as it currently
14 stands, FORD MOTOR COMPANY would be a Defendant. The experts
15 would testify as designated, and the jury would hear each
16 expert's respective testimony.

17
18 As such, as the case is currently constituted, this Motion
19 is premature. If the case goes to trial with FORD as a 20 Defendant, the jury will hear the expert testimony regardless of 21 the designating party. There is only an issue if FORD settles
22 and Plaintiffs proceed to trial against THE HERTZ CORPORATION.
23 If the case goes to trial as currently constituted, there is no
24 issue. As such, it is THE HERTZ CORPORATION'S position that 25 Plaintiffs' Motion is premature, as FORD MOTOR COMPANY is still a
26 party to this lawsuit.
27
28

1 B. THE HERTZ CORPORATION has made it clear throughout
2 litigation it planned to rely on any and all designated
3 witnesses and produced documents.

4 Defendant, THE HERTZ CORPORATION, served its initial 5 Production of Documents on November 9, 2009. (See attached as 6 Exhibit F to Plaintiffs' Motion) Included in this production is 7 the following paragraph:

8 Defendants also incorporate all witnesses
9 identified by all other parties in this
10 action. Defendants reserve the right to 11 supplement this witness list as discovery
12 proceeds, to call any witness identified by 13 any other party, and to call any witnesses
14 for purposes of impeachment/rebuttal. (See 15 Ex. F to Plaintiffs' Motion, pp. 5-6)
16 (emphasis added)

17 This paragraph is also included in a supplemental production
18 of documents served by THE HERTZ CORPORATION on May 12, 2010.
19 (See attached as Exhibit G to Plaintiffs' Motion)

20 On November 16, 2011, the parties filed a Joint Pre-Trial
21 Order in accordance with Local Rule 16-3. (See Attached hereto
22 as Exhibit A) Within the Joint Pre-Trial Order, each of the 23 parties listed the witnesses it intends to call. Among those 24 witnesses listed by THE HERTZ CORPORATION were every expert
25 disclosed by FORD MOTOR COMPANY. In addition, THE HERTZ
26 CORPORATION stated: "Hertz intends to offer live testimony of 27 designated witnesses at trial." (See Ex. A, p. 9/lines 10-11)
28 Plaintiffs' Counsel agreed to and signed this order. (See Ex. A,
p. 19)

Thus, beginning on November 9, 2009 (the date THE HERTZ CORPORATION served its initial production of documents), Plaintiffs' counsel was on notice that THE HERTZ CORPORATION explicitly reserved its right to call on any witnesses designated or identified by other parties. Plaintiffs' counsel did not object to the initial production or to the supplemental production in May of 2010. Plaintiffs' counsel then signed the stipulated to Joint Pre-Trial Order on November 10, 2011. This pleading makes it clear that THE HERTZ CORPORATION intends to call and elicit testimony from designated witnesses at the time of trial.

C. THE HERTZ CORPORATION only learned that Plaintiffs' counsel objected to its calling of expert witnesses when the settlement conference with FORD failed to yield a settlement.

As Plaintiffs noted in their underlying Motion, Plaintiffs and FORD participated in a mediation that did not result in settlement with FORD.¹ It was only after this mediation occurred that Defendant learned Plaintiffs objected to THE HERTZ CORPORATION relying upon expert witnesses designated by Co-Defendant. Given that Plaintiffs' counsel did not object to the phrasing in both the initial and supplemental production of documents, THE HERTZ CORPORATION was surprised to learn of this

¹ Normally, Defendant would not discuss inadmissible settlement negotiations or mediation in a procedural motion, as they are irrelevant to the same. However, Plaintiffs "opened the door" to these discussions by referring to settlement negotiations in the underlying Motion, and as such, Defendant must defend itself accordingly.

1 position. Upon learning of the same, THE HERTZ CORPORATION filed
 2 the Joinders to clear up any misconceptions.²

3 After mediation with FORD failed, Plaintiffs made a
 4 settlement demand to THE HERTZ CORPORATION. It is THE HERTZ
 5 CORPORATION'S position that Plaintiffs are attempting to settle
 6 with one Defendant prior to trial in order to "finance" what is 7 sure to be a lengthy and costly trial. It appears as though
 8 Plaintiffs are now trying to use this alleged "issue" in an
 9 attempt to force THE HERTZ CORPORATION into settlement.
 10

11 Given Plaintiffs' counsel's failure to object to the 12 language contained in the productions of documents, coupled with 13 counsel's signature on the Joint Pre-Trial Order, THE HERTZ
 14 CORPORATION never knew there was an issue regarding potential
 15 testimony from experts. Had counsel objected when the documents
 16 were served, this would have been resolved well before initial 17 expert disclosures were due. Further, counsel had the 18 opportunity to object to the language in the Joint Pre-Trial
 19 Order, but signed off on the same. As such, it is Defendant's
 20 position the instant Motion should be denied.
 21

22 D. Should the matter proceed to trial, *THE HERTZ CORPORATION
 23 will share equally in the costs of expert witnesses with 24 FORD MOTOR COMPANY.

25 Prior to the filing of Plaintiffs' Motion, Defense counsel
 26 had discussions with FORD'S counsel regarding sharing of expert
 27

28 ² Given the language in the productions of documents, THE HERTZ CORPORATION is at a loss how there could ever be confusion.

1 witness fees. If this matter proceeds to trial, THE HERTZ
2 CORPORATION will share fees equally with FORD. If FORD were to
3 settle, THE HERTZ CORPORATION will pay the expert fees entirely.
4 Thus, any concern of Plaintiffs that these experts are not shared
5 by THE HERTZ CORPORATION is unfounded.

7 E. Defendant is not required to either "designate" another party's experts or file a Joinder.

8 Plaintiffs argue repeatedly in their Motion that Defendant
9 is not permitted to rely upon expert testimony from FORD MOTOR
10 COMPANY'S expert witnesses because THE HERTZ CORPORATION did not 11 specifically designate the experts. There is no argument the 12 experts were not timely or properly disclosed, only that THE 13 HERTZ CORPORATION failed to do so. However, such a designation
14 is unnecessary. Indeed, THE HERTZ CORPORATION is not even 15 required to file a Joinder, but did so to make it explicitly
16 clear THE HERTZ CORPORATION intends to rely upon and call FORD'S 17 expert witnesses at the time of trial. As such, if a "failure to 18 disclose" did occur, it is most certainly harmless as described
19 in FRCP 37(c)(1).
20

22 The Eighth Circuit declined to strike an expert when 23 plaintiffs were provided with the name, resume, and opinions of 24 an expert and made the same available for deposition. Crump v.
25 Versa Products, 400 F.3d 1104, 2005 U.S. App. LEXIS 4510 (8th Cir.
26 2005) In the instant matter, all of these events occurred.
27 Plaintiffs were aware of the names, resumes, opinions and reports
28

1 of the experts prior to the initial expert disclosure deadline.
2 The experts were made available for deposition. Plaintiffs
3 cannot dispute these facts.

4 "A party is not required to disclose the expert witness of 5 its adversary, though it will rely on the expert's testimony..."
6 US v. Schaudt, 2009 US Dist. LEXIS 37212 (N.D. Ill. 2009) "A
7 witness identified as a testimonial expert is available to either
8 side..." SEC v. Koenig, 557 F.3d 736, 743 (7th Cir. 2009, emphasis
9 added)
10

11 In Bone Care Int'l, LLC v. Pentech Pharms., 2010 US Dist.
12 LEXIS 1044549 (N.D. Ill. 2009), the Court followed the SEC v.
13 Koenig decision and denied a Motion in Limine filed by Defendants
14 seeking to prevent Plaintiffs from calling experts designated by 15 Defendants.
16

17 It is clear from these decisions that THE HERTZ CORPORATION
18 was not required to designate these witnesses. In fact, THE 19 HERTZ CORPORATION was not required to file a Joinder to the 20 designations, but did so out of an abundance of caution when it
21 became clear Plaintiffs intended to object to THE HERTZ
22 CORPORATION calling FORD'S experts at the time of trial. As a
23 party is permitted to rely upon the expert testimony of another

1 party, Plaintiffs' Motion is baseless and should be summarily
 2 denied.³

3 F. Plaintiffs are not prejudiced, as Defendant is not
 4 attempting to disclose any new information.

5 Plaintiffs point out in their Motion that Defendant will 6 likely argue Plaintiffs have not been prejudiced. That is 7 accurate in both respects; Plaintiffs have not been prejudiced
 8 and Defendant intends to argue the same. Plaintiffs had the 9 names and opinions of all experts. The experts were made
 10 available for deposition, and in fact, were deposed. THE HERTZ
 11 CORPORATION does not seek to introduce any new experts or 12 opinions at the time of trial. Rather, THE HERTZ CORPORATION
 13 seeks to rely upon properly designated and disclosed witnesses,
 14 and has expressed its intentions to do so since November 9, 2009
 15 (the date of THE HERTZ CORPORATION'S initial production of 16 documents). Moreover, caselaw makes it clear that THE HERTZ
 17 CORPORATION is not required to name these experts as expert
 18 witnesses. As such, Plaintiffs can demonstrate no prejudice, nor 19 can they demonstrate any failure or procedural defect on the part
 20 of THE HERTZ CORPORATION.
 21
 22

23 CONCLUSION

 26

27 ³ THE HERTZ CORPORATION'S language in the initial production of documents is rely upon the expert testimony of another party.

CASE NO. 2:09-cv-2091-JCM-PAL

JOINT PRE-TRIAL ORDER

Following pre-trial proceedings in this cause pursuant to Local Rule 16-3,

IT IS SO ORDERED:

I.

STATEMENT OF THE FACTS/CONTENTIONS OF THE PARTIES

This is a product liability action brought against Ford Motor Company and Hertz Corporation arising from a single vehicle collision that happened on September 18, 2007, in Las Vegas, Nevada. At the time of the collision, decedent Anthony Niemeyer, age 58, was driving a

1 2007 Ford Focus 4-door sedan that he had rented from Defendant Hertz Corporation and was
2 travelling northbound on Village Center Drive in the Summerlin area of Las Vegas. He was
3 alone and was wearing his seatbelt. The accident occurred at approximately 6:44 a.m.

4 Plaintiffs' Contentions: Plaintiffs' position is that the accident happened due to Mr.
5 Niemeyer losing control of the Ford Focus for an unknown reason, possibly falling asleep or 6 temporarily passing out. The Focus hit a tree at 15-16 mph. The "must-deploy" threshold for the 7 driver's airbag is below the speed of impact. The driver's frontal airbag did not deploy as 8 designed. The purpose of the airbag is to prevent injurious contact with the interior of the car. As 9 a result of the non-deployment, Mr. Niemeyer struck his head on the steering wheel suffering a 10 fatal head injury. Had the bag deployed as designed then Mr. Niemeyer would not have died.

11 Ford's Contentions: Ford's position is that the accident happened when Mr. Niemeyer
12 suffered a lethal cardiac arrhythmia, causing him to slump over and to lose control of the subject
13 2007 Ford Focus. As a result, the Ford Focus drifted to the left, climbed and traveled over the
14 raised center median, crossed the two oncoming lanes of traffic for southbound traffic, climbed a
15 curb on the left side of the southbound lanes, and then struck a tree head-on at a speed of 13-14.5
16 mph. Because the impact speed of the Focus was below the "must-deploy" threshold for the 17 driver's airbag, the airbag was not commanded to deploy upon impact with the tree.

18 Ford denies all of Plaintiffs' allegations against it, and asserts that the occupant restraint
19 system in the Focus performed properly and as designed by deploying the driver's seatbelt
20 pretensioner, while suppressing the driver's airbag, in this moderate severity collision. Moreover,
21 Ford contends that the alleged defects in the 2007 Ford Focus' occupant restraint system did not
22 cause or contribute to Anthony Niemeyer's death, inasmuch as he had sustained a lethal cardiac 23 event prior to losing control of the vehicle.

24 Hertz's Contentions: Hertz's position is that the accident happened when Mr. Niemeyer
25 suffered a lethal cardiac arrhythmia, causing him to slump over and to lose control of the subject
26 2007 Ford Focus. As a result, the Ford Focus drifted to the left, climbed and traveled over the
27 raised center median, crossed the two oncoming lanes of traffic for southbound traffic, climbed a
28 curb on the left side of the southbound lanes, and then struck a tree head-on at a speed of 13-14.5

1 mph. Because the impact speed of the Focus was below the “must-deploy” threshold for the driver’s airbag, the airbag was not commanded to deploy upon impact with the tree.

2 Hertz denies all of Plaintiffs’ allegations against it, and asserts that the occupant restraint system in the Focus performed properly and as designed by deploying the driver’s seatbelt pretensioner, while suppressing the driver’s airbag, in this moderate severity collision. Moreover, Hertz contends that the alleged defects in the 2007 Ford Focus’ occupant restraint system did not cause or contribute to Anthony Niemeyer’s death, inasmuch as he had sustained a lethal cardiac event prior to losing control of the vehicle.

3 II.

4 STATEMENT OF JURISDICTION

5 The collision that gives rise to this lawsuit occurred in Las Vegas, Nevada. Decedent Anthony Niemeyer was a resident of Missouri at the time of his death. Plaintiff Rebecca Niemeyer is also an heir of Anthony Niemeyer and is a resident of California. Ford Motor Company is a Delaware Corporation with its principle place of business in Michigan. Hertz Corporation is a Delaware Corporation with its principle place of business in New Jersey. This matter involves a claim for damages in excess of $75,000. Jurisdiction is therefore based upon diversity of citizenship under 28 U.S.C. § 1332. The parties admit that jurisdiction is proper, and admit that venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391.
